

THE RELAY MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING: A High-Impact Program Focused on Concrete Techniques

The Relay Master of Arts in Teaching program is focused on techniques that make the deepest impact in classrooms, with unmatched opportunities for practice. As a graduate student you'll develop skills that will boost your confidence and transform your classroom, enabling your students to become better scholars and citizens. The M.A.T. is designed to allow busy teachers to earn a degree in just two years while working full time.

M.A.T. HIGHLIGHTS

- Join district and charter classmates
- Gain rigorous, applicable training
- Receive concrete, actionable feedback
- Cultivate a joyful classroom culture
- Drive student growth and achievement

THE RELAY APPROACH

Becoming a great teacher is like becoming a great athlete or musician: It takes relentless practice and dedication.

LEARN: Gain proven techniques that you can use the next day in the classroom, taught by champion teacher-professors.

PRACTICE: Record yourself practicing core techniques, and then receive feedback from peers and professors.

PERFORM: Become a whiz at analyzing student data, and then demonstrate your ability to drive academic growth.

M.A.T. Program Overview

The M.A.T program has three academic terms —summer, fall, and spring—which include the following components:

- Core: General pedagogy instruction and concrete teaching skills
- Content: Techniques specific to grade levels and subjects
